Upper Grades Will Start School Later

Opening for Grades Four to Eight Postponed Until September 21.

LOWER GRADES ON MON.

The opening of school for the intermediate and Junior High School grades of the Narberth Public School has been postponed from Monday, September 14th, as was planned, to Monday, September 21st. This change was found expedient by the School Board in order to give the contractors time to complete fully the building under construction.

The Kindergarten and grades one, two and three will resume work for the term on Monday morning, September 14th, as previously planned. The grades convene at 8:40 o'clock and the Kindergarten at 9:00 o'clock.

The Kindergarten and first three grades will have a half day session on Monday with a teacher's conference at one o'clock in the afternoon. Full day sessions will be held thereafter.

The intermediate and Junior High School grades will have a full day session on the opening day, September 21st, and continue according to schedule thereafter.

The postponement will necessitate the closing of school about a week or ten days later in the spring, while the primary grades will be dismissed a few days earlier.

The teachers in grades 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 will have a teacher's conference during the week of September 14th and will assist in getting everything ready for full time work.

To Elect Officers

The annual election of officers will be held at a meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church on Monday at 2:30. A large attendance is desired.

Collection Next Week

Collections of ashes and trash will be made throughout the Borough next week and during the week of September 28th. Thereafter, beginning with the week of October 5th, collections will again be on a weekly basis.

To Meet in Legion Room

The September meeting of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the Legion Room of the Community Building instead of at the Narberth School. The date and other details will be announced next week.

To Attend Meeting

Dr. John Van Ness and Elder A. H. Wilson have been chosen as commissioners from the Narberth Presbyterian Church to the meeting of Presbytery in the Newtown Church on September 15.

Narberth's Candidates for County Office

Louis A. Young, left, and Fred Walzer, candidates for the offices of County Commissioner and Sheriff at the Primary Election next Tuesday.

Tuesday Last Chance to Avoid Tax Penalty

Next Tuesday is the last day for payment of County taxes before the 5 per cent. penalty is added, according to an announcement by Edwin P. Dold, Narberth Tax Collector, this week.

The Tax Collector will be at the Narberth National Bank each day from 8 to 9 A. M. and on Friday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock and on Saturdays from 8 A. M. to noon.

In addition to the above hours, Mr. Dold will be at the bank next Monday and Tuesday from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M. to receive taxes.

The 5 per cent. discount allowed on Borough taxes is withdrawn on October 1. A penalty of 5 per cent. is added to school taxes after October 1.

The County Poll Tax of 50 cents is now assessed each resident in place of the County Occupational Tax appearing on personal tax bills.

Narberth Takes League Lead, Downing Bryn Mawr, Llanerch and Paoli Over Week-end

Borough Nine Hands Redmen a
4-3 Defeat, First in Second Half.

BAKER, JONES, KING STAR

By DAVE CASEY

The resolute relief hurling of Bill Reynolds and the alertness of catcher King halted Bryn Mawr's desperate ninth inning thrust and allowed the Narberth team to gain their first league victory over the league leaders last Saturday afternoon at the Narberth playground.

The hectic ninth inning rally, which thrilled the large crowd attending the contest, started when John Jackson lost control and walked Morgan and Tarlecki, the first Bryn Mawr batters in the closing frame. Narberth at this point was leading 4-1 and Jackson had been pitching the finest game of the year holding the Redmen helpless and limiting them to four hits. However, when Gazella, the next hitter, crashed out a long double scoring Morgan, Manager Davis withdrew his hurler from the game and called on the vet-

Day.

REYNOLDS IS WINNER

By DAVE CASEY

Gene Davis' Narberth Club climaxed a week-end of splendid ball playing by taking the strong Paoli team into camp by a score of 10-9 on Labor Day afternoon.

The game, which was witnessed by a crowd of at least 2500 fans, was a slugging match from start to finish and although the Paoli wrecking crew out-hit the Narberth batsmen 15 to 12, the snappy fielding of the boroughites and Bill Reynolds' courageous hurling in the pinches enabled the Borough club to finish the game with a slender one run lead.

Six men on the Narberth squad provided all the base hits, with Barney Slaughter and Bill Reynolds getting the most potent swats, Barney hammering out a triple, and a double, while Reynolds came through with a long three bagger and a single. The big guns of

Big Vote Seen Here for Young, Walzer

Narberth Republican Committee to Meet Monday Night.

INDEPENDENTS GAINING

This week's political developments made it clear that Montgomery County is in the throes of the fiercest fight for control of the Republican Party that has occurred in years and it said that the independent faction has made considerable headway in splitting the ranks of organization workers in what have always been Johnson strongholds. According to these reports, Conshohocken is almost sure to go for the Boyd-Just ticket and it is also claimed that Norristown is about to break the traces, as it did in last fall's campaign, and give at least a small majority against the present incumbents.

In Ardmore there is evidence of a nip-and-tuck battle, with the odds appearing to be in favor of the organization, due to the manner in which the township's workers are hustling to hold their line, but in the lower sections of Lower Merion the current seems to be strong for the opposition, with both sides seeking to accomplish the heaviest primary vote on the records.

In Narberth it is conceded that the vote will be overwhelmingly for the independents, due chiefly to the fact that Fred Walzer and Lou Young are on the ticket, and strenuous endeavors are being made to pull out an unprecedented vote in the Borough, on the score that every extra vote here will offset a Johnson advantage in other parts of the county.

Busy at work is a citizens' committee which now numbers more than a hundred active members, men and women, who stress the keynote of neighborhood spirit and the fact that Narberth has never had a voice or part in any Mont-

Boro Women Voters Hear Candidates Speak

A meeting of Narberth Republican women voters who are supporting the Independent ticket was held Wednesday afternoon at the Narberth Theatre Hall. Addresses were made by a number of the candidates including George Gane, of Bryn Mawr, running for Register of Wills, Mrs. Emilie Wilson for Director of the Poor; Louis A. Young for Commissioner, and Fred Walzer for Sheriff.

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Griswold and Mrs. R. C. Hoffman and plans were formulated for active service at the polls on next Tuesday.

The organization was constituted as the Women's Division of the Narberth Progressive Republican Committee.

Rubincam's Hit Beats Llanerch in Ninth

Losers Put Up Great Fight in Labor Day Morning Contest.

McKEE PITCHED WELL

By DAVE CASEY

Manager Wyc Justis and his youthful team from Llanerch gave Narberth a most unpleasant surprise on Labor Day morning when they refused to play the part of easy victims to the much stronger local club.

For eight innings Bill Doughty held the Borough's batsmen helpless allowing only three hits and one run, two of the hits being credited to Herb Baker who is having a brilliant slugging streak. At the same time Jim McKee, on the mound for the Davis-men, was also hurling a fine game, allowing exactly the same number of hits and runs.

Going into the ninth it looked as though the two clubs were in for an extra-inning battle, but after one was out Bob Martin raised the Narberth hopes with a one-base blow. Manager Davis called on George Babb to hit for Jones, but George's best was a foul fly easily taken by Ortlip. Harry King then rolled one to third and was safe when Allison fumbled. Manager Davis then called another pinch batter and had better luck this time as Joe Rubincam strode to the plate and dropped a Texas Leaguer safely in right field scoring Martin. Wilson charged in on the hit and threw wild toward the plate and King and Rubincam both scored before the confused Llanerch team recovered the ball.

As this was a home game for Llanerch the men of Justis still had a chance to even it up, but Bill Reynolds, the demon relief hurler, retired them one-two-three in the last round.

New Delicatessen Opens in Narberth

Larger Quarters for Hamer's Sandwich Shop; Agency for Ice Cream.

OTHER BUSINESS BITS

The Main Line's latest eating place is Hamer's Delicatessen and Sandwich Shop, which will open next Tuesday, September 15, at 238 Haverford Avenue, Narberth. Harry Hamer, who opened his delicatessen shop at 250 Haverford Avenue, January 1, 1928, has taken over the larger store and remodeled it into a modern, well equipped eating place, with booths for day and evening meals.

Sandwiches, waffles, all kinds of salads and delicatessen will be featured—and also L. D. Bassett's ice cream, in bulk and fancy forms.

Mr. Hamer has the exclusive agency on the Main Line for this ice cream, which is the kind sold at the Reading Terminal Market in Philadelphia.

The new food shop was until recently known as Chris Koch's Drug Store, and before that, as Howard's Drug Store, one of the earliest business places in the borough. The prescription files have been taken over by J. Paul Shea, whose pharmacy near the Narberth Station is the only independent one in Narberth.

In June Mr. Hamer took over three stalls for the sale of pork products and smoked meats, at the Reading Terminal Market. These have been given up in order that he might devote his entire attention to his Narberth shop. The market stalls have been sold to Marvin K. Lebo, formerly butcher for J. J. Whiteside, Narberth.

Curiosity was rife this week when a new "Quaker Stores" sign was put up over Howard F. Cotter's market on Haverford Avenue, Narberth. The store continues under Mr. Cotter's ownership management; the sign shows that Mr. Cotter's membership in the Retail Grocers' Association is in the highest degree, limited to comparatively few members. Their purpose is uniformly high quality of service and merchandise and low prices. The Narberth store continues "individually owned—buying co-operatively."

Mrs. Nan Herrshaft returned Monday to Narberth from a successful season at her women's wear and gift shop in The Maples, Maine. New stock is now arriving for her season here.

A pleasing arrangement of greens has been placed in the lobby of the Egyptian Theatre by Myron L. Upham, of the Dreamwyld Florist Co., Cynwyd. Dreamwyld's place on Montgomery Avenue, by the way, has a special this week of interesting little potted plants in fancy jardiniere.

Joining the ranks (or perhaps columns would be better) of advertisers in this paper this week, is Marshall Company, of Narberth, whose quality of papering and painting has been recognized on the Main Line for many years.

John Mowrer Served in Navy During War

Candidate for Borough Council
Has Been Legion's Finance Officer Nine Years.

LIVED HERE FOR 20 YEARS

John A. Mowrer, Jr., of 714 Montgomery Avenue, Narberth, who is a candidate for Borough Council, has been a resident of Narberth for twenty years.

Born in Ardmore, December 7th, 1894, he has also lived for a time in Merion. Mr. Mowrer, who is unmarried, has been engaged in the contracting and building business all his life. His office is located at 283 Montgomery Avenue, Cynwyd.

During the war Mr. Mowrer served in the navy in transport and coastguard work. As a member of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, of Narberth, Mr. Mowrer has been its Finance Officer for the past nine years.

His home on Montgomery Avenue, known as the old Price mansion, is one of the oldest houses in the section. The deeds in Mr. Mowrer's possession show that it dates to 1800 but it is believed to be considerably older. Rumor has it that it was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters during the Revolution.

Mr. Mowrer's nomination is being advocated by residents who favor a change in the zoning of Montgomery Avenue to a business district. Mr. Mowrer has expressed his sympathy with this proposal.

gomery County administration. Throughout the town doorbells and telephones are ringing, with personal appeals going to every Republican voter on the local list, the whole plan presenting the most seething political effort, it is said, which has ever been made in these parts.

According to word from the Johnson workers in Narberth, no effort will be made to stem the tide for Walzer and Young, but, it is said, the rest of the ticket will be contested. It is also stated that Frank X. Renninger will receive a considerable vote for District Attorney in the Borough, as Abraham Hendricks, the candidate on the independent slate, has not proved a good campaigner, and Renninger's assertiveness, it is stated, has impressed itself on the voters to his advantage. Renninger is the present occupant of the District Attorney's office, but has been rejected by the Johnson organization for another term. He has made a single-handed battle to retain his office and is expected to poll a very heavy vote in all parts of the county.

A meeting of the Narberth Progressive Republican Committee, formed to organize the local vote for the independent candidates, will be held at Narberth Theater Hall on next Monday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, to make final plans for the primary on the following day, Tuesday, September 15, when the polls are open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. daylight saving time. The leaders of the movement state that it is an open meeting and that any man or woman who can help in any way is invited to be present.

Parochial Schools Open

Parochial schools of the Main Line opened on Tuesday following masses at 8:45 in all Catholic churches. The schools which opened are: St. Margaret's, Narberth; St. Coleman's, Ardmore; Our Mother of God Counsel, Brvn Mawr; St. Mathias, Bala; St. Thomas'; St. Katherine's, Wayne; and St. Monica's, Berwyn.

Special Musical Services at Presbyterian Church

With the completion of the overhauling and repairs of the pipe organ at the Narberth Presbyterian Church, including also the installation of a very tuneful new Tuba stop, this church is planning special musical services each month.

The organ will be in use again this Sunday, and the organist, quartet and chorus have prepared an attractive program for both morning and evening services as follows:

A. M.
Organ prelude, "Morgenstimmung," from "Peer Gynt Suite," Grieg.
Quartet, "Unfold, O Gates of Glory," Geibel.

Soprano solo, "The Hundredth Psalm," Miss Mildred Jones.

Quartet, "Trust Ye in Jehovah," Lowden.

Organ postlude, "A Song of Trust," Watson.

P. M.
Organ, "Meditation," Stults; "Humbleske," Dvorak; "Sanctus," Gounod.
Quartet, "A Dream of Paradise," Gray.

Bass solo, "The Builder," Cadman, Mr. H. R. Moyer.

Quartet, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," Farmer.

Chorus, "Shining Inside," Geibel.

Offertory, hymn voluntary, "Ein Feste Burg," Luther.

Quartet, "Strike the Cymbal," Pucitta.

Organ Postlude, "Fanfare," Lemmens.

In keeping with this musical program, the pastor, Dr. J. Van Ness, will preach in the morning on "The Place of Music in Public Worship," taking the Hundredth Psalm for his text, and in the evening he will base his message on Luther's immortal hymn, "Ein Feste Burg."

On Friday evening, September 25, there will be an organ recital by our own townsman, Professor Harry C. Banks, Jr., organist at Girard College, assisted in vocal solos by another Narberthite, L. Sarle Brown, professor of music at the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Philadelphia School of the Bible.

During October the quartet will give another musical evening and in November Peter Stam, Jr., organist of the church, will give a recital with Mrs. Stam as soloist. In December there will be special Christmas music by the quartet and a large chorus choir.

Members of the quartet include Miss Mildred Jones, soprano; Mrs. Helen Scull Mankey, contralto; John Blackburn, tenor, and Harry R. Moyer, bass.

The pipe organ was originally installed by the Haskell Organ Company and has given some twenty years of acceptable service; it has now been thoroughly overhauled and modernized in many respects by a long-established firm of pipe organ manufacturers, F. A. Bartholomay & Sons of Philadelphia, and the result is an instrument of much greater volume and tonal beauty.

Rotarians Hear Talk by E. Stanley Bowers

A frank discussion of business problems and methods of meeting new conditions formed the talk Tuesday before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. The speaker was E. Stanley Bowers, past president of the Philadelphia Club.

Mr. Bowers traced briefly the business cycles which have given rise to recurrent depressions, but emphasized the fact that the present troubles had the unique character of lacking a definite cause. He recalled money panics, crop failures, etc., as past causes.

Expressing the belief that the bottom of the present trough has been passed for some time, Mr. Bowers declared that the survival of any business will depend on the lessons learned by the depression, with special reference to economies and more intelligent and productive merchandising.

"Wages must be commensurate with the value of commodities," he said, "and must be fairly and equably adjusted. A man who is getting the same pay today as he did two years ago is in effect being paid a great deal more."

Public Invited to Mulieres Card Party on Tuesday

The Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company held a meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, on Essex Avenue, on Tuesday afternoon to discuss plans for the forthcoming card party to be held on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Robert J. Nash, Narberth and Price Avenues, on Tuesday afternoon September 15, at two o'clock.

There will be prizes for every table. Home-made cakes and tea will be served by Mrs. William J. Loughlin. Mrs. John Burrell, Mrs. Frederic Egmore and Mrs. Charles J. Brunsel. The tickets are $1.00 each. For reservations, telephone Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Narberth 3679-R.

The purpose of this card party is to raise funds for the equipment of the booths of the Fireman's Carnival, which will be held in Elm Hall on October 23rd and 24th, the proceeds of which are for the benefit of the Narberth Fire Company. The card party is in charge of an acting committee, who will be chairmen of the booths at the carnival. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Observes 217th anniversary. The church immortalized by Longfellow as "an image of peace and rest," Old St. David's at Radnor, celebrated its 217th anniversary last Sunday. Its churchyard contains the bones of many Revolutionary dead, including General Anthony Wayne. Dr. Crosswell McBee, its rector, was in charge of the two services last Sunday.

Car stealers arrested. As they stepped from an automobile that had been stolen in Philadelphia four youths from the city were arrested on Highland Avenue, Merion, by Lower Merion police on Monday. They were held under $2000 bail by Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer at Ardmore police station and will be turned over to the city authorities.

Telephones stolen. Railway and trolley stations of the western Main Line are being watched over by Radnor Township police in an effort to catch thieves who have been stealing public telephones in these places and robbing the coin boxes. Police learned Tuesday that another telephone in the Ithan trolley waiting room had been stolen. Lower Merion and Haverford Township police are also searching for the robbers. It is thought that an organized gang is responsible for the thefts.

Get school grant. The Lower Merion School district is richer by $40,625.15, the amount of the check received representing one-half of the annual State appropriation. The appropriation is somewhat larger than last year, Peter C. Hess, Township Treasurer, pointed out, since Lower Merion has become a second-class school district.

Plan tennis tourney. The Knights of Columbus fifth annual tennis tournament will be held on the Villanova College courts on September 19 and 20. Frank Weiner, former chairman of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission, has donated a trophy to replace the cup won last year by the Columbus Council.

Discussed mental ills. Dr. Kenneth E. Appel, of Haverford, psychiatrist at the University Hospital, Philadelphia, spoke on causes of mental troubles in childhood at the fourth annual conference of the Bureau of Compulsory Education, Board of Education, last week. Lack of one or more of the four essentials—security or love, aggressive independence, interesting work and activity and social adjustment—are responsible in nine cases out of ten for mental ills in childhood, Dr. Appel asserted.

Commends Editorial

To the Editor of Our Town:

Permit me to express my appreciation of your splendid editorial in last week's issue. Your keen analysis of the Montgomery County situation is exactly what those voters need who are trying to vote in the best interests of the people.

May I further trespass on your valuable space by calling attention to the contest for Justice of the Supreme Court. The first name on the Republican ballot is that of Graham C. Woodward, of Philadelphia, a man in every way worthy of the high honor. He is an able lawyer, a high class gentleman, never in politics, of fine judicial temperament.

The other candidate is James B. Drew, a Pittsburgh politician, who has been a perpetual office seeker since 1906. He is a big cog in the corrupt Pittsburgh political machine which is controlled by Mayor Kline, now under indictment, and Senator Jimmy Coyne who was recently compelled by the Government to pay $90,000 in income taxes which he tried to dodge. Voters can judge for themselves of the wisdom of elevating a man of Drew's type to the Supreme Court.

What is said above concerning Woodward is equally true of Charles F. Uhl who is contesting with Drew for the Democratic nomination.

Harry M. Chalfant.

It Is All Very Confusing

To the man who earns his livelihood in commerce or manufacturing, the occasional visit to the polling place means very little, unless his emotions have been touched by matters of friendship, religion or personal habits. To the professional politician, to the man whose livelihood stops if he is forced to get a job away from the courthouse, election day is a most important occasion. Next Tuesday is one of those occasions.

Montgomery County has been going through an interesting, if confusing, primary campaign. In the usual fashion, we have had to listen to gross quantities of bunk, yet back of it all is the choice of a group of men to represent us, and to spend a few millions of our money. Most of us cast our ballot in accordance with the instruction of the local political leader, but for the benefit of those Main Liners who like to choose their own candidates, let us review the campaign briefly:

The contest is between Charles Johnson and his associates on the one hand, and a group of men anxious to unseat him, on the other. On the whole ballot there are no rosy idealists, though they pretend to be; no public benefactors, though they pose as such; no statesmen, though they like to consider themselves such. The tickets are made up of professional, practical politicians, each looking out for himself, and each willing to give the taxpayer more or less consideration. There are a few exceptions to the latter category.

Each list of names is Republican—each is regular Republican, although the "ins" prefer to reserve that title to themselves. And each ticket presents public reason for support, and yet is in the fight for purely private ones.

Johnson and his crowd are privately in the fight to hang on to a lot of fine incomes, powerful jobs and perquisites of office, which they have controlled for a long, long time. The opposition headed by Boyd and Just are impelled by the same motives, save that they want a "cut-in" on the gravy. In other words, it is a private professional political scrap.

But each group has a speech to the public. Johnson shows that his county leadership has been economical in taxes, generous in public works. The opposition claim that the present crowd is not employing Montgomery County labor for local improvements, has a low tax rate purely because of the wealth of the county, and is in it for all the money they can get.

The fight for County Commissioner posts centers around the insistence of Johnson that his son-in-law be taken care of by holding this lucrative post, to which Judge Williams, his brother-in-law, appointed him. With a cry of "nepotism," Senator Boyd began the fight against family politics.

Frankly, it won't make much difference to the average taxpayer if Johnson succeeds in perpetuating a little monarchy, or if the oddly-constructed Boyd-Just ticket overturns the apple cart. This year the voter is siding with political groups, not principles.

The publisher of this paper, despite his friendship and admiration for the local organization leaders, is rooting for the anti-Johnson ticket headed by Louis A. Young for Commissioner. The reasons for this preference are:

We resent the fact that Commissioners Drake and Ridgway are indulging in the ghoulish trick of taking unto themselves credit for the building of a courthouse and reduction of taxes which were planned and largely executed by men whose deaths gave them their jobs.

We resent (perfectly selfishly) the fact that our taxes, paid in part to provide for the publication of legal transactions for the information of the public, do not accomplish that end, and that papers which do not sell their readers to the Johnson crowd are denied the right to carry county legal advertising. Thus readers of this paper are kept in the dark so that the money may be paid to the organization sheets in some distant town.

We are opposed to the perpetuation of political power in the hands of a small group, in a region where only one party has a chance. We feel that new blood in the courthouse, in the form of men of the stamp of Mr. Young and Mr. Strouse, will greatly benefit the voter and the rank and file of Republican worker.

So, without casting stones at any one, or particularly blaming "the boys" for fighting for the easy money they now have, we join with those who call for a new political deal in Montgomery County. We advocate the nomination of the Boyd-Just ticket, or such of them as seem pleasing to the individual voter, and the retirement of Johnson and his monopoly.

Praises Ball Team

To the Editor of "Our Town":

Any Narberth baseball fan who missed this past week-end's games on the local diamond missed as fine a feast of the national sport as has been served in these parts (not even excluding 21st and Lehigh!) in many a day, and congratulations are certainly in order to Manager Davis and all of his players. Every one of the games was a thriller from start to finish, and there wasn't a single Narberth player but figured in the triple victory at some stage and added his page to the borough's book of baseball history. To recount all the fine plays of Saturday and Labor Day would just about fill this whole issue of "Our Town," and any way, Dave Casey is the official baseball reporter and somewhere in this issue you'll find his full and graphic account of the three contests. But we cannot resist the temptation to play just a little extra spot-light on a few of the most outstanding features. That double-play in Monday afternoon's game with Paoli, with the bases full—Jones to King to Jefferies, was as beautifully timed and as accurately played as anything ever seen at Shibe Park. And that running catch that Harry Francis made in the same contest—well, if Tris Speaker, or Ty Cobb, or Bing Miller ever did anything finer it was never recorded in the sports pages of the big city papers. And not forgetting the visitors, Doyle, of Bryn Mawr, made a running one-hand catch in Saturday's game that was worth travelling miles to see—even if it did, at the time, threaten to deprive Narberth of a victory. MacGregor and Baker scooped 'em up and threw 'em out at first like they never heard of such a thing as the "error column"; Slaughter and Martin took care of things in their respective fields, and at the bat, like the experienced and dependable players that they are, Rubin-cam pinch-hit the home club into its Monday morning victory, and Jackson, McKee and Reynolds carried off the pitching honors in grand style—especially Bill Reynolds who, even though he didn't wear his red socks, did fine relief work in both the Saturday and the Monday morning games, and carried the Monday afternoon contest straight through to the final triumphant put-out.

All and all it was a grand week-end and Manager Davis and his players deserved all the applause and cheers that were given them; and those of you fans who went motoring to West Virginia, and journeying into Shibe Park, and Woodside Park, and other points of interest—well, we hope you had a good time, but it's just too bad that you missed those three baseball games.

"OLD TIMER."

(Ed. Note—"Them's our sentiments, too.")

Organizations

To the Editor of Our Town:

May I express through your columns a personal opinion that is stirring in my heart?

I have been noticing for some time the trend of increase in community organizations. Last spring I counted in one issue of "Our Town" notices of the meeting in one week of something like ten different community organizations. (There are no doubt more.) I am not writing to register disapproval of these various groups as such. In themselves most of them no doubt are serving a useful purpose.

But it does seem to me as though we are contributing our energies in a less useful way than if we all contributed these same energies to the Lord's work through our respective churches. The Lord's work is always begging for "servants" and then we, who call ourselves by His name, rob Him of our services, choosing rather to contribute our talents to an extra-church organization. It doesn't seem altogether fair, now does it?

Sincerely,

CLETUS A. SENFT.

The People and the Potentate

By THE SPECTATOR

Several years ago we had an hour's session with the political overlord of Philadelphia in behalf of a young man who had served a stern apprenticeship in mastering the great intricacies of possibly the most important Federal branch of activity in the city. Our friend had schooled himself, by long and faithful application to his task, in a manner that had won the respect and regard of all who came in contact with the office and he was accepted country-wide as an outstanding expert in the involved subject with which he had to do daily. For all practical purposes, he was the actual head of the office, keeping close control on all its multitudinous details, but the nominal executive was a political pet with a stipend which was nearly three times the salary of his hard-working subordinate. The chief was about to be shifted by the War Board to another office at even a higher income and it was thought our young man might have a chance to move himself up to the front seat in the government office.

We pointed out to the potentate that it would be reasonable to believe that a man who had worked so splendidly in the service of the United States had earned the same right of advancement, when opportunity offered, which would be accorded him in private enterprise and we urged that the Philadelphia Organization support him for the appointment on the grounds of fair-square procedure, the kind of equitable recognition which he ought to have if honorable and patriotic motives governed as they should.

Very patiently were our claims received, and quite cordial was the acquiescence in the representations we made regarding the repute and record of the aspirant but for the rest of it we had apparently only been indulging in pretty talk. The young man was of no consequence as a political factor and that was the only feature of the case that interested the powerful one.

For a long time we pulled and hauled, with perfect frankness on both sides, but nothing counted except the one thing and our candidate lost out to a political adept who would have real difficulty in making the simplest kind of additions and subtractions. At the end of it all we made bold to declare that this kind of procedure reflected a decidedly pasty spirit in public affairs, one that would inevitably keep civic business on a fearfully mediocre plane, and we said that even a hard-boiled political organization might very well have loftier standards to its own advantage. We were told, however, that the methods seemed to suit the people, and with a beautiful bombast it was said that the constant approval of the electorate signified a perfect public confidence in the ways of the political masters. And what could you answer to that?

Exactly the same kind of thing, the same genre of perennial power and self-perpetuation, prevails in practically every large center of population in America and, to a restricted extent, in many of the outlying districts of the older States. In its last analysis, it portrays a shocking capitulation of too large a percentage of the American people. It is directly accountable for the facility with which almost any kind of legislation can be enacted in this country. It is making democracy a delusion and "representative government" a rank absurdity.

In our own Montgomery County we have had the boss system working with consummate cunning for many years and the fight which is now on to upset it would seem to have better prospects

Old English Atmosphere Pervades New Strawbridge Men's Shop Opening Tomorrow

This Saturday, September 12th, Strawbridge & Clothier will open their Main Line Men's Shop at St. James Place and Parking Plaza, Ardmore, directly across the street from their present Main Line store. This shop has a total area of 7500 square feet and is adjacent to the new Medical Arts Building. It signifies another step in the extensive expansion program which Strawbridge & Clothier are carrying out.

The new $10,000,000 building which this company is erecting in Philadelphia on the site they have occupied since 1868 is rapidly nearing completion. At Old York Road and Rydal Road in Jenkintown they opened on Wednesday, of this week, a very beautiful new store similar in general effect to the present Main Line store at Ardmore. Strawbridge & Clothier believe that no other form of retail distribution can displace the large store centrally located and completely stocked—that is why they have built their new Philadelphia store. But they also have recognized the changing trend of modern conditions and believe that the suburban stores, run as branches from the main store, enable them to better serve a larger public and thus increase their total sales volume. The Main Line store, opened in May of last year, was the first of these branches and its success has been notable. Only a few months after this store was opened it was found necessary to enlarge it, and 20 per cent was added to its area. The new Main Line Men's Shop is another step in this firm's efforts to give its Main Line patrons a complete service in Men's Apparel and Sports Goods.

Unique Arrangement

The main architectural feature of this new Men's Shop is the sixteenth century English style in which it is carried out and the very artistic and practical arrangement of the store on different levels, which are easily accessible. It has a different atmosphere from the usual haberdashery establishment and is designed more along the lines of a club in its general architectural effect. For instance, it has a Consulting Room where committees from schools and colleges may meet, and offers many other new ideas in the merchandising of Men's Goods.

From the street one enters the section where are found the Men's Hats and Furnishings. This has a high, vaulted ceiling, a great part of which is skylight, admitting an abundance of natural light to aid the customer in selecting. The wood is a light, warm-toned oak. The floor cases for displaying Hats, Neckwear, Pajamas and other Haberdashery are more like Old English chests than the usual display case.

Built into the wall in cases on either side, accessible through wood grille doors, are ample stock rooms for the reserve merchandise.

This room is in reality a huge staircase landing, because to the rear a flight of steps leads down to a lower level where are shown Sports Clothing, Golf Hose, Sweaters, Lounging Robes, Bathing Suits and Chauffeurs' Liveries. A flight of stairs on either side rise under a wide arch to an upper level, where will be found Men's Clothing and Men's Shoes. The room has an environment designed to provide the utmost comfort in selecting merchandise. This upper level contains clothing cabinets glazed with leaded glass and well-lighted triplicate mirrors flush with the walls. A feature of the room is a big stone fireplace, flanked by two mullioned windows reaching to the high ceiling.

While this room is on the upper level, it is entirely visible upon entering the store, and gives an unusual idea of spaciousness to the entire shop. Here also is located the Tailoring Room for alteration work and also for Men's Clothing made to measure. There are plenty of comfortable davenports and high-backed chairs upholstered with soft red leather; ample tables with convenient ash trays—the whole atmosphere is masculine and represents the comfortable arrangement which will appeal to men and to women who shop for men.

Down a few steps at the side and also connected with the Men's Furnishings section are Fitting Rooms and Service Desks. These are so arranged as to give privacy.

Connected with the lower level is a complete Sporting Goods section with full lines of golf, tennis, baseball and football supplies, including Clothing and Shoes for sports as well as other necessary equipment.

Dreher & Churchman designed the building and supervised its construction.

The ownership and control of the Main Line Men's Shop is the same as all the other Strawbridge & Clothier stores. Bertrand C. Burlingame is Manager of the Men's Shop as well as the Main Line store and the Old York Road store. He will be assisted in the Men's Shop by Joseph A. Toland.

The hours for the opening day of the Men's Shop will be from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., and in honor of the occasion the Strawbridge & Clothier Main Line store will also stay open in all departments until nine o'clock on that day.

of success than has ever been the case before. Additional aid of extraordinary value is afforded the rescue mission by the times which engulf the people and which are stirring them to a better realization of the sterling worth of first principles. A likely lot of candidates had been selected to lead the fray and ample evidence accumulates that a throne is tottering.

It is not always clear, however, that the ammunition is invariably fired in the right direction, as it would seem sensible to occasionally turn the guns on the voters themselves. Mr. Johnson is altogether a human being, as strong and as weak as the rest of us. Through the long years he has been told in effect (and often enough) that he has full and complete charge of our public affairs, to do pretty much as he pleases to do about them, and possibly we should not get so excited when we discover him doing precisely what we, in one way or another, lethargy, laziness or what-not, advised him he could do. The appetite grows on what it feeds on and Mr. Johnson, very reasonably, is constantly increasing, for his own benefit and for those who are obsequious to him, the large power which has come unto him.

Around him gather his satellites, those who serve him meekly and well, and he parcels out the public offices as he will, switching men from place to place as becomes the mannikins they are, giving us a ticket on all occasions which at least has the virtue of economical preparation, inasmuch as the printer only has to change the names about from last time, as the old familiars are still and always there, ever on board, but headed at each election for another berth, except in the instances where life-tenures are accorded.

That's Mr. Johnson's way of doing things and as Mr. Johnson had been told, year in and year out, that he can have his own sweet and undisturbed way, it is entirely natural for him to believe it and to profit exceedingly by it. Why, it has come to pass that everything we get in the way of "improvements" is described as the result of the beneficence and kindly disposition of the Johnson organization and we are told that we had better not scrap with them if we don't want our doles cut off. Yes, sir, Johnson's done a lot for the Township, says the man who otherwise boasts that he is an American and who wants his children taught to revere the flag and what it stands for, the right of a free people to govern themselves, the need of being constantly alert if men are to conserve their natural and political rights and liberties. Truly, most of the monkey-faces should be made at ourselves, not at Mr. Johnson, and if we vote against him it shall be chiefly to restore ourselves, not merely to rebuke him. This country shall never know a permanent prosperity, nor the attainable degree of widespread human happiness, until or unless a virile people return the land unto themselves.

Here in Narberth we have several additional reasons for making a fruitful foray on the Johnson camp. For the first time in its history the Borough is recognized on a formidable County ticket and, as if to make up for the grievous derelictions of the past, two important posts have come our way. Fred Walzer is a splendid choice for Sheriff and Lou Young has all the experience and outlook which will make him a superior type of County Commissioner. To miss voting for the pair of them, and the ticket which they represent, would be to disregard the great opportunity which is Narberth's, and it is pleasant and gratifying to observe that our people, irrespective of how they were previously divided, are of one mind and accord in declaring that the Borough vote shall and ought to be a gigantic tribute to our favorite sons, who are quite worthy, on their own merits, of anything we can do for them. Let's see to it that we do considerably! The Spectator.

As we are going into the big end of our selling season, we have openings for a few high-grade salesmen for the Main Line. Opportunity for earnings and advancement limited by energy and ability.

Phone Mr. Mead, Wayne 963-W, or Mr. vonRohr, Cynwyd 333-J—or apply in person at 40 South 17th Street, Philadelphia.

Narberth Post Swings Into Action After Summer Recess

The customary summer recess in the affairs of the local Post of the American Legion in Narberth came to an end this week with a joint meeting of the Executive Committee and the Nominating Committee. The meeting was held at the home of the Post Commander.

The present financial status of the Post was discussed and the plans were formulated for the activities of the Post for the coming year. The principal topic was the need for raising funds for the anticipated needs for welfare work among ex-service men and their families during the coming year. It is the policy of the Post to come to the immediate aid of all ex-service men and their families when in distress. It was pointed out that during the past year $264.65 had been expended for relief work, a very large portion of which went to the wives and children of ex-service men who are not members of the Legion.

The next meeting of the Post, to be held on Monday, September 28th, will be the occasion of the annual election of officers. The precedent of selecting the outstanding candidates through a Nominating Committee was followed. It is made clear to the members that the selections of the Nominating Committee are advisory, and that nominations from the floor of the meeting are as valid as the recommendations of the Nominating Committee. The name of any member may be proposed for any office at the election meeting. The following candidates were selected by the Committee:

For Commander, William H. Durbin; for Vice Commanders (two to be elected), A. P. Redifer and Charles Greyer; for Adjutant, C. D. Goodwin; for Finance Officer, J. A. Mowrer, Jr., (for re-election); for Chaplain, Rev. R. E. Keighton; for Sergeant-at-Arms, E. O. Ensinger; for Color Guards, L. M. Nicholson and W. H. Cook. For the important office of Executive Committee, the following were named: John C. Nash, Dr. A. J. Denman, Henry A. Frye, Roland K. Hewit and W. P. Miesen. Five members of the Committee are elected.

NEWS SHORTS

To bar transient vendors. An ordinance is being prepared by the Lower Merion Township Commission to prohibit the operation of "fly-by-night" business operations in the township. The movement was instigated by the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce. It is an attempt to draw the line between permanent merchants who pay taxes and transients.

Had police protection. Miss Mary Winsor, of Haverford, candidate for County Commissioner on the Socialist ticket, was the principal speaker at a rally held last Friday night at Norris town. Instead of being dispersed as some rumors had it, the meeting was given police protection.

Gets State appointment. Harry C. Blue, of 521 Valley View Road, Merion, is one of four inheritance tax appraisers appointed in Montgomery County by State Auditor General Charles A. Waters last Friday. Mr. Blue, as chief appraiser, will receive a salary of $5000. Other appointees are Dr. W. Howard Wilson, of Abington; B. Paul Sheeder, of Pottstown, and Benjamin Sprague, of Collegeville. Hitherto the office of the Registrar of Wills handled this work and received many a lucrative fee.

Breaks 99 targets. Walter Beaver, of Berwyn, won the 16-yard championship in the annual Westy Hogan trap shooting tournament at Atlantic City last Saturday, shattering 99 out of 100 targets.

Faculty at Township Schools Announced

Twenty-one New Teachers on List Released by Supt.
S. E. Downs.

Twenty-one new teachers are included in the list of the faculty of Lower Merion's public schools, released this week by Superintendent S. E. Downs. The complete staff of the elementary and high schools totals 247. Of this number 45 comprise the Senior High School faculty and 41 that of the Junior High. Seven teachers were transferred this year.

With the exception of three transferred teachers, the faculty of the new Penn Wynne School are all new teachers. The principal, Miss Edith McMorris, was formerly in the Bryn Mawr Public School.

A new principal, Burns T. Best, has been chosen for the Wynnewood Road School, while its former acting principal, Ralph F. Davenport, will devote his entire time as principal of the Ardmore Avenue School.

But unfortunately Sam Mason in growing into Samuel F. Mason had forgotten all about the $5.10 deposit. But the $5.10 did not forget him and managed to almost multiply itself by nine. Now the $41.83 is to be the property of a Mason grandchild and remain in the bank to be added to and to multiply for his education.

“SEB’N MILLION— TEN MILLION—”

IN THESE DAYS of business difficulty, advertising must be intelligently prepared and placed in papers of KNOWN CIRCULATION, which really reach the homes.

The unscrupulous publisher and the over-zealous advertising salesman will swear to any fantastic, padded circulation figures in the heat of competition. No claims of “three thousand,” “five thousand” or “ten thousand” circulation on the Main Line mean any more than Andy’s “Seb’n million—ten million,” if the true figures are but a fraction of the mighty boasts.

How can you tell? Remember these facts:

- (1) Reputable daily newspapers, of honest circulation, throughout the country are members of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.
- (2) Reputable weekly papers are members of the STATE AUDIT BUREAU and have their circulation records certified by a RECOGNIZED ADVERTISER’S AUDITOR.

If you are supplied with “sworn” figures, “claimed” circulation and “take my word for it” information, demand an A. B. C. or State audit. If you get excuses instead of an audit, draw your own conclusions.

Administration of Montgomery County's Affairs Is Sole Issue of the Campaign TO THE REPUBLICANS OF MONTGOMERY:

T. Duncan Just, ostensible leader of the Montgomery Drys, and James S. Boyd, self-appointed custodian of the Montgomery Wets, are trying to fuse these absolutely opposed factions in a scheme to end Charles Johnson's leadership of the Republicans of Montgomery County.

In furtherance of their scheme Messrs. Just and Boyd are working State patronage to the limit and making a vast number of promises which are impossible of fulfillment.

The only issue before the Republican voters in the primary election, Tuesday, September 15, is the administration of the internal affairs of Montgomery County.

The administrative officers of the county, under the Johnson leadership, frankly submit their record for the consideration of every voter.

They maintain that that record in actual accomplishment in material construction, lowered taxes, almost entire absence of bonded indebtedness—in short every vital feature of efficient government—makes Montgomery County the envy (and despair) of every other county in Pennsylvania.

They confidently ask you to express your approval of their work with your votes.

Dahlia days.

That pretty blue in the rock garden is plumbago larpentae, or leadwort, also known as ceratostigma plumbaginoides.

Feed trees in September and October; their roots start to work in early spring before we can get to them.

Sweet William makes the ideal edging plant for tulip borders. "Willie" covers the fading foliage of the tulips and prolongs the procession.

You have selected the better peonies if you have ordered Richard Carvel and Adolphe Rosseau for red, Walter Faxon, Therese, Grandiflora, Solange and Lady Alexander Duff for pink and Le Cygne, Mrs. Edward Harding and Festiva Maxima for white. These varieties are now reasonably priced and will win prizes in a few years. Add Primevere for the only yellow.

A collection of pom-pom dahlias mixed with some late sprays of gypsophila Bristol Fairy makes a nice table decoration.

And in your list of perennials for fall planting include one or more plants of asclepias tuberosa, called the butterfly weed. If this is a weed then let us have more like it for July and August.

We can probably thank the ladies' garden clubs for more and better gardens—and gardeners—in America. The time seems to have arrived when plants can be called by names of more than two syllables. We hear less of bleeding hearts and more of dicentra spectabile, less of day lilies and more of hemerocallis, less of flags and more of irises, less of snow-on-the-mountain and more of cerastium, less of youth-and-old-age and more of zinnias—and so it goes. Plants mean more than something handed over the back fence; common names are confusing and tell us little, whereas the proper name means much, tells us something of the plant's origin and how it should be handled.

A lady-gardener-neighbor showed us some plants in a cold frame a few days ago; not ordinary plants, but fringed gentians raised from seed. The seeds were gathered last fall and handled as alpine and the plants are now in bud. We must go up and see them in flower in about another three weeks.

This fall would be a good time to start that wild garden in among the trees. Hemlocks, laurel, native azaleas, inkberry, dogwoods, hollies, spicebush, shadbush, sorrel trees, witherod, maple-leaved viburnum, Judas trees, gray birch, hawthorns, chokeberries and winterberry. If the soil can be made very acid we might have blueberries and huckleberries. With this foundation we can add the ferns and then the wild flowers themselves.

Every wild flower garden is in itself a bird sanctuary. Trees, shrubs, ferns, wildflowers and birds. Quite some garden.

The final test of civilization is the way we trust those we don't expect to see again.

A lot of women who look like prosperity have husbands who look like depression.

Borough Nine Hands Redmen 4-3 Defeat

eran Reynolds to protect the slender lead. Reynolds responded in fine fashion, fanning the dangerous George King. Bob Doyle then hoisted a long fly to center and the usually reliable Francis misjudged the ball and the hit went for a triple, while Tarlecki and Gazella scored. Here indeed was a dangerous situation with the tying run on third and the redoubtable Charley Townsend up to bat. Through some misguided strategy, however, Bryn Mawr elected to squeeze the run in, and when Townsend failed to bunt the ball, the efficient Harry King snapped a throw to third, trapping Doyle between the bases where he was run down. Reynolds then proceeded to fan Townsend and the important victory was assured the borough nine.

This thrilling ending provided a fitting climax to a game replete with splendid fielding efforts and brilliant all round play on the part of both teams. The entire Narberth infield gave Jackson admirable support with Jones and Baker the outstanding performers. Besides handling six other chances perfectly, Jones made the most brilliant play of the game in the fifth inning when he cut off Bob Doyle's hard grounder behind third base and converted it into a put out with an accurate throw to first. For the visitors both Doyle and Curvan made sensational catches that robbed Narberth players of base hits, while Gazella and Morgan played great ball in the infield.

Charley Townsend, who proved a mystery to the Narberth batsmen in the earlier games, proved easy for the bustling boroughites in this contest. His offerings were slapped vigorously for eleven hits with Herb Baker leading the attack with three safe blows. Other Narberth hits which played a big part in the scoring were Harry King's triple, Bob Jones' double, and two singles by Barney Slaughter.

THE FIRESIDE

Many of the borough residents are returning to their homes, having enjoyed delightful vacations in the various seaside resorts or in the mountains or in camp.

Many of the younger people, too, have departed for schools and colleges, while others are still vacationing and will return to their homes later in the season.

Mr. Albert Means, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Means, of Montgomery, Avenue, left on Saturday for Duke University.

Mr. and Mrs. Means are leaving shortly for a week's trip by motor through New England. Their daughter, Miss Virginia Means, is the guest of Miss Eleanor Smith, of Inman Circle, Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woolmington, of Narbrook Park, and their daughter, Miss Ruth Woolmington, spent Labor Day week-end in Williamsport, Pa., where they were joined by their son, Parker Woolmington, who spent six weeks at Cedar Pines Camp, Cedar Run, Pa.

Miss Belle Black, of Lebanon, Pa., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Compton, of Woodbine Avenue, for several days. Miss Black will enter the Nurses' Training School of the Episcopal Hospital shortly.

Mr. Bud Compton, of Woodbine Avenue, and Mr. George Albert motored to Lebanon last Saturday, where they stayed over Labor Day week-end.

Mrs. May A. Brown, of East Orange, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Speck, of Woodbine Avenue, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hubbell, of Peoria, Ill., formerly of Narberth and Villanova, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Betty Hubbell, and Mr. E. Gardner Taylor, of Chicago.

Miss Helen Lafore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lafore, of Penn Valley Farms, Penn Valley, had as their guests over the Labor Day week-end Mr. and Mrs. William Diredorf, of Akron, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Keenan and family, of Avon Road, who have been spending several weeks in New Hampshire, will return to their home next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cowin and their daughter, Miss Margery Denenence Cowin, of 206 Merion Avenue, have just returned from Capitol Island, where they have been spending the summer. They have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. T. Stuart Cowin, of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Katherine Andress and Mr. David Fox, of Germantown.

Miss Margery Cowin also made a trip to Bar Harbor, where she was the guest of Mrs. Edgar B. Howard, of Bryn Mawr.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ketcham, of Haverford Avenue, have recently returned from a vacation spent at Lenape Village, a lakeside camp for adults and families located on Fairview Lake in the Poconoc Mountains. With them was their son, Billy, who was the pianist at a minstrel show held at Lenape Village.

Mrs. Catherine Snyder, of Lancaster, Pa., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Alfred Peeney, of Elm Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Alfred Peeney spent the Labor Day week-end in Lancaster and York, Pa.

Miss Emily Duebler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Duebler, of State and Hageysford Roads, Penn Valley, returned recently from Camp Pine Cl Harrison, Me., where she spent the summer. Dr. and Mrs. Duebler's other daughter, Miss Henrietta Duebler, has also returned from Camp Ziptekana, Winooski, Vt.

Dr. Duebler spent several days this week in Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Richardson, of Valley View Road, Merion, and their daughter, Miss Clare Richardson, spent the week-end as the guests of Mrs. L. M. Leonard, of Altoona, Pa.

Miss Margaret and Miss Effie Eamigh, of Altoona, were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mr. Clyde Richardson and Mr. Elwood Richardson returned to the University of Alabama on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson and family, of Valley Road, returned on Monday from a several weeks' stay in the Poconos.

Miss Honora Snyder, of Forest and Woodbine Avenues, returned last week from the University of Michigan, where she was taking a summer course.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hicks, of Sabine Avenue, returned on Tuesday from a stay at Stone Harbor, N. J.

Mr. Ned Bartlett, of Merion Avenue, and Mr. Julian Keenan, of Wynnewood, have returned from Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

Mr. William Lockyer, Jr., of Merion Avenue, has just returned from Avalon, N. J., where he spent the summer.

Miss Kitty Jane Miller, of Narberth Avenue, recently returned from Camp Bueno.

Mr. Robert Scott, of Merion, is at Medford Lakes in the Pines, N. J.

In the Theater

Although Shaw's "Candida" is not new to the Hedgerow Theatre repertory, it has not been performed at Moylan-Rose Valley since Ann Harding was an active member of the company, so that its return next Saturday night, the 19th, will be almost like a new production, especially as the whole cast is different. The roles in "Candida" will be played by Dudley Vaughan, Greta Mylcraine, Ferd Nofer, Jasper Deeter, Carl Roukauff and Alfred Rowe.

The Spewacks' melodrama, "Solitaire Man," which has been absent from the repertory for several weeks, will be given on Tuesday night. The robbers riding in the moving aeroplane will be played by Carl Reukauff, Joseph Taulane, Helen Craig and Dorothy Willard. Wednesday's performance will be the newest production, "Can You Hear Their Voices?"; which uses the entire company. "Happy Ending" by Perry Ivins is scheduled for Thursday night, with Carl Reukauff in the role of the young man who longs to patronize the arts in his home town, and Dudley Vaughan, Dorothy Willard, Marshall Gatchell in the chief supporting parts. The earthy and poetic comedy of Lynn Riggs, "Roadside," is the play for next Friday night. Heading the cast are Cele McLaughlin, Carl Reukauff and Jasper Deeter.

Tonight's show at Hedgerow is Muselman's comedy, "Merry-Go-Round," and tomorrow's the Moliere comedy, "The Physician in Spite of Himself." Saturday matinees begin on the 26th.

Christian Science Topic

"Substance" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 13. The Golden Text is, "By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life" (Proverbs 22:4).
Among the citations from the Bible is the following: "Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment: That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures" (Proverbs 8:1, 20, 21). The lesson-sermon also includes passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which reads: "The substance of all devotion is the reflection and demonstration of divine Love, healing sickness and destroying sin. Our Master said, 'If ye love me, keep my commandments'" (p. 241).

When it comes to the two-legged variety, bad eggs are always fresh. In the olden days they used to pay the piper. Now they pay the plumber.

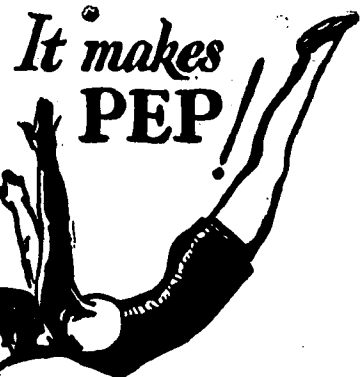

Although the ice was broken in the Philadelphia theatrical season with a one-week stand of a new musical show at the Garrick recently, a definite list of openings is now available, beginning this week-end.

The opening attractions at the various theatres are scheduled as follows: This Saturday—"Twisting the Law," at the Walnut, a new comedy by Sam and Bella Spewack with Harry Green in the role of a likeable shyster lawyer. Monday, September 14th—"The Laugh Parade," at the Shubert, a brand new musical comedy starring Ed Wynn. The Lee sisters are prominent in the supporting cast.

'TIME OUT'

Return of Buek Brightens

L. M. Backfield Outlook

Lower Merion will have a chance to see Coach Albert Adam's entire football squad in action after this week, as the opening of school has brought the summering laggards home from the seashore and mountains. The arrival of Harvey Buek, last year's Lower Merion Junior High captain, brightens the prospects for the backfield, for, despite his youth, this husky Merion boy is a natural football player of exceptional ability. Down at Radnor Oats O'Dorisio blossomed into a star in his sophomore year, and this year Adam has a boy in Buek who can match ability with the best of high school players. In two years at Junior High this youngster did not lose a minute of playing time through injury, and he carried the ball every third time in sixteen tough football games.

Bob Taylor was Buek's running mate in the backfield two years ago, and the two should feel at home playing together with Adam.

The team has been practising daily on Pennypacker Field, and Adam has lined up a tentative eleven which gives promise for quite a bit of alertness and speed, and some power on defense. With Grauch and Thomas at end, he has two light, but agile performers who should develop into good wingmen. Grauch's weakness at present is his inability to catch passes. With a little determination he can overcome this handicap. Thomas is a veteran, and that counts for a lot.

At the tackle positions, Harry Lott and Dominic Polilli will be determined performers. The latter has the advantage of almost two hundred pounds of beef and bone, something that is quite important in a high school line. Lott weighs only 165 stripped, but he is going into his practice sessions as though he meant business.

"Toad" Henry and Victor Newborg are lined up at guard on the present combination. If Adam does not find that Newborg is of more value in the backfield, then Vic will be a neat performer as running guard. Henry is light, but he is a vicious tackler and loves the game. Lachman Rinehart, captain of the team and veteran center, can back up the line with a vengeance, and his passing back is really excellent. In the backfield, Taylor, Ryan, Buek and Iochavelli make up a versatile combination. It remains to be seen just what this combination will do. I believe that Adam will have to make some changes, it is natural that he will, as some of the untried ones may develop overnight into just the player for some doubtful position. This is the most likely lineup for the opening game which is some weeks in the offing, but barring injuries, you may look forward to seeing all of these boys in action in that first scrimmage.

The squad is looking fresh and eager. Light workouts in signals and a bit of dummy scrimmage, along with touch football, has brought the boys to a point where they are ready for a little rough work just as soon as the football equipment is passed out.

Continue protests. Property owners of Haverford Township who are fighting the proposed service building of the Philadelphia Electric at Haverford Road and Hathaway Lane carried the case before the Public Service Commission last week. The hearing was held in City Hall. The Utility Company seeks to have the Zoning Ordinance of Haverford Township suspended since the location chosen is in a residential zone. Among the protestors are solicitors for Haverford Township. It was claimed that there were other localities which would serve the company's purposes as well without causing deterioration of property values.

Paoli Downed 10-9 in Free-Hitting Contest

the visitors' attack were Barney Umbach and Girard, the former clouting three clean singles while Girard not only matched these but added a terrific home run wallop in the ninth. In addition to his hitting exploits Umbach played a great game in right field, capturing three difficult flies and converting one of them into a double play in the first inning. Verna of Paoli was the outstanding infielder, handling nine chances without a slip, while Jones and Baker, as usual, scintillated in the inner works for the Davismen.

The real batting pyrotechnics of the game started in the fourth inning with Paoli leading 4-3 at the time. After one was out in the Narberth half Reynolds started things moving with a one-base blow. Haigh, the paoli pitcher, then walked Francis and Baker, filling the bases. Manager Bill Madden then withdrew Haigh and substituted Howard Graham, a move of questionable wisdom as Graham had already pitched the morning game. MacGregor greeted Graham with a roading single to center, Slaughter followed with a long blast for three bases and Jack Jefferies sent Barney over with another single, giving the local team five runs and a commanding lead.

The borough boys added two more in the seventh when Reynolds opened the inning with a triple behind the score board and Francis walked. Francis was trapped between the bases attempting to steal, but Verna failed to grab Shellenberger's throw and Reynolds scored, Francis taking second. The fleet Francis went to third on Baker's infield out and scored when Verna threw out MacGregor at first base, giving Narberth their ten runs.

Narberth appeared to have the game safely tucked away but the slugging Paoli outfit, without a doubt the best hitting team seen in the Main Line League in many years, unleashed a terrific attack in the last two innings that cut the Narberth lead to a single run.

In the eighth four straight hits by Umbach, Girard, Davis and Shellenberger scored two runs and only a fast double play on Graham's grounder engineered by Jones, King and Jefferies, averted a disaster for the local cause.

Potter followed the double killing with another single that scored Paoli's third run but the inning ended when Jones tossed out Eachus at first base.

After two were out in the ninth, Paoli again broke loose when the irrepressible Umbach singled and the hard hitting Girard crashed one to the tennis courts for a home run. Things looked bad at this point, but Reynolds bore down on Davis, ending the game by retiring the Paoli batter on three swings and putting the Narberth club in undisputed possession of first place for the second half.
